Managing Stress for Higher Performance & Work-life Balance

October 03-05, 2016
MDI Campus, Gurgaon
BACKGROUND

Stress has become a part of life, especially when managers are faced with numerous challenges of performing in a highly competitive business environment where one is constantly trying to give his/her best within the constraints of complexity, ambiguity and uncertainty. Managing Stress and maintaining work-life balance depends on the ability of managers to maintain control over oneself when situations, people and events make excessive demands on them. Stress affects different people differently and one has a choice to adopt a proactive approach, a reactive approach or a passive approach to managing and coping with stress. Thus, managing stress is more about of managing self, prioritizing, effective time management and accepting the challenges as an opportunity for realizing one’s potential.

OBJECTIVES

The objective of this 3-day programme is to provide a holistic and integrative approach to understanding and managing stress by identifying the causes and realizing the consequences of stress. This would ultimately help the participants in developing their own strategies and methods of managing stress so that they are able to contribute more to their profession and at the same time find time for their personal responsibilities. Thus the ultimate purpose of the programme is to take the participants to the next higher level of performance without making compromises in their personal life.

The Management Development Institute (MDI) was established in 1973 with the active support of IFCI following an initial grant received from KFW, West Germany. The Institute soon established itself as one of the earliest centers for continuing education in India. As an endorsement of its frontrunner position in the field of Post Graduate Education in Management in India, MDI’s PGP (a two-year full-time MBA equivalent program) has been awarded “A” Grade by the National Board of Accreditation of All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE). Various surveys have ranked MDI among the top B-schools of the Country. MDI is the first Indian B-school with Global accreditation AMBA-Association of MBAs, UK. The education programs comprise of two-year full-time PGP, PGP-HR, PGP-IM, 15-month Executive PGDEM, three-year Executive Management Program, Doctoral level FPM I EFPM, Post Graduate Program in Energy Management, and PG Diploma in Public Policy and Management. In addition to its academic programs, MDI has been a pioneer as well as a market leader in the area of continuing education in management. With over 42 years in this field, MDI conducts nearly 200 weeks of intensive short-term training programs each year, aimed at executives and managers from industry. Over 3000 managers participate in these programs each year. These include open programs, as well as customized organization specific training modules. The approach integrates latest knowledge with best practices through integrated business school activities enabling organizations in pursuit of excellence.

MDI offers consulting services in the different functional areas of management. The driving force at MDI is a dedicated team of distinguished faculty who has extensive experience and expertise in diverse fields. Over the years, there has been distinctive shift in emphasis from helping design and implement policies, systems and processes in functional domains to cross-functional domains. The institute is recognized by the industry (public and private). Central and State governments, and NGOs and is known for providing quality services to its clients. MDI always strives to provide high quality, cost-effective and timely services to the clients. It has remained contemporary through its primary focus on research, adapting to change and developing innovative strategies to facilitate the process of change in the dynamic business environment. The institute’s clients say that it has been able to add value to them by bringing in a strong cross-functional emphasis in their approach to carry out business.

As part of its strong research focus, MDI supports the following research initiatives:
- Centre for Supply Chain Management Centre
- for Excellence in Information Management
- Centre for Entrepreneurship Centre
- for Transformational Leadership Centre
- for Corporate Governance Centre
- for Responsible Business Centre
- for Positive Scholarship

MDI maintains high level of academic excellence in management. It has over 80 full-time faculties who have several years of experience having worked at senior positions in the industry. The faculty is thus able to deliver a healthy mix of practical insights and academic rigor in the classroom. MDI also has strong links with leading international B-schools. This aids in delivering a globalized management curriculum. As part of the global initiatives, student and faculty exchanges go on regularly. Joint research projects are also undertaken. Above all, MDI has a well developed state-of-the-art infrastructure, which includes a library with a collection of over 60,000 volumes, and online access to international journals, a computer center with over 500 PCs, air-conditioned lecture halls and syndicate rooms, besides a host of other recreational facilities.
