<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Nature and Extent of involvement of Faculty and students in academic affairs/improvements 	MDI aims at continuous improvement in every activity and process. Feedback from all stakeholders is a primary source of input to affect this improvement. All courses need to be reviewed and updated by the concerned faculty members. Faculty is evaluated by students both on content and delivery of courses. Guest speakers from the industry are invited as part of every course. New courses are designed and introduced based on inputs from the students and after discussion in faculty council.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Mechanism/Norms and Procedure for democratic/ good Governance 	Day to day administration at MDI is handled by the Director and the Deans, all of whom are faculty members, aided by other faculty members in various roles and staff members. The Director is appointed by the Board of Governors and reports to the Board. The position of Deans is not a permanent position and they are appointed by the Director and rotated periodically. The Deans and the Director meet regularly to discuss various academic and administrative matters of the Institute. Periodic meetings of the Director, Deans and faculty and staff members in charge of specific activities ensures timely completion of key deliverables.

	Feedback and suggestions regarding Quality, Innovation and Continuous improvement flow from the faculty and staff to the Deans and the Director. Key curriculum and program level decisions are presented to and approved by the Faculty Council comprising all faculty members of the institute.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Student Feedback on Institutional Governance/ Faculty performance 	Along with peer observation of teaching, student feedback is also received in multiple ways. The two main methods are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> The course evaluation system The student meetings with entire faculty body every year In the former, towards the end of every course, students complete a standard course evaluation feedback form, reflecting on their experiences in the course. This includes questions asking students to evaluate aspects of course and professor's effectiveness on a quantitative scale. Few open-ended questions are also included, for students to express themselves. The respective faculty member receives the results of the analysis and written comments, the summary of the same is received by the Program chairperson, who then forwards it to the Dean, Area Leads and the Director of the institute. The Director periodically meets with the Student Council (an elected body of the students) to discuss all matters of student concern. Students also have 24x7 direct access to key administrators including the Director through social media channels like WhatsApp.
